THE OPEN SWITCH.

AN ESTABLISHED SAFEGUARD.

Anybody who travels by cars knows what is meant by "an open switch." It is the terror of railroad men, and the dread of the traveler. Its victims—killed, horribly mangled or maimed for life—are numbered by the score each year.

Yet even the dreaded "open switch" is not so widely fatal as is a certain disease, which, without causing its activity for an instant, is daily filling hundreds of graves.

What is that terrible ailment? you ask. It is Heart Disease. "But," you reply, confidently, "I haven't any heart disease—my heart is all right." Are you sure?

Dr. Franklin Miles, of Elkhart, Ind., the distinguished specialist in diseases of the heart and nervous system, states that disorders of the heart are as common as those of the lungs, liver, stomach, bowels or kidneys, though often unsuspected. The reason people are not aware of this important fact is because symptoms of heart disease are not usually recognized as proceeding from this organ, but are attributed to some other source.

If you have shortness of breath, fluttering or palpitation, pain or tenderness in left breast, shoulder or side, oppressed or choking sensation, fainting or swooning or "your heart is affected."

"I had been troubled with heart disease for years. My left pulse was very weak, could at times scarcely feel it, excitement would weaken my nerves and heart, and fear of impending death stared me in the face for hours."

Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure are the only medicines that have proved of any benefit and cured me."—L. M. DYER, Cleveland, Md.

"My wife has been taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart. She thinks it wonderful. She has not been troubled with pain or swooning spells since using it. We have all recovered. Dr. Miles' Pills, and we find them all they are claimed to be."—GEO. L. FINK, Philadelphia, Pa.

These and hundreds of similar testimonials are convincing proofs of the wonderful powers of Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart. It is effective, agreeable, and above all, SAFE. Sold by druggists on a positive guarantee, or Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

SOME FAIR FEATURES

As Viewed from Mr. A. W. Campbell's Standpoint of Vision.

THE GREAT CHILDREN'S BUILDING

Where Infants in Arms and Youngsters of Older Years can be Left While Parents Take in the Sights. The Gladitorial of the Lady Managers and the Convention En Perennance—The Real Government of the Fair Lodged in a Junta.

Special Correspondence of the Intelligencer.

Chicago, August 5.—The World's Fair jogs on at the July rate of 80,000 to 85,000 per day, paid admissions, about 20 per cent of which are children at 25 cents per head. There is a class of younger children who go in free, viz: children in arms and children just out of arms, and in order to encourage the coming of parents who cannot leave these young children behind there is a children's building where they can be checked and left, like so many parcels, in responsible hands, and carefully attended to all day long (for a consideration of course) and returned as good as new in the evening when the parents have done the fair (and done themselves) for the day, and are ready to go to their quarters outside the gate. This is a feature of the fair not generally known, and I therefore publish it abroad through the columns of the INTELLIGENCER for the benefit of all whom it may concern. This convenient manner of disposing of the small urchins can be repeated from day to day, as long as the parents are visiting the fair, and inasmuch as the arrangement is on quite a liberal and complete scale, under the auspices of the fair management, no fond mother need have any hesitation about what will become of her baby or juvenile in case she visits the fair. She can rely on the fact that it will be taken good care of at this founding establishment, if I may so call it. It is a particularly good place to leave a boy who is just a little too juvenile to catch on to the show and who therefore would be apt to become bored as he trudged along with his parents and to bore them in turn. He can be corralled in the gymnasium of the children's building and in company with a lot of youngsters like himself, can have a high old time in a b.c. athletic. It is located near the Sixtieth street entrance to the fair and convenient to the woman's building.

Speaking of the woman's building I am reminded to remark, as a passing observation, that when Abram Hewitt, of New York, was here the other day he told a newspaper interviewer that that was about the only feature of the fair that fell below his expectations. Taking the exhibits therein contained as a whole he did not think that they put woman and her achievements in art, literature and science on a very high pedestal. After reading this opinion of Peter Cooper's son-in-law, who is also ex-mayor of New York and an ex-member of Congress and a great iron manufacturer as well, I thought I would go over the ground again myself at the woman's building and file a dissenting opinion in my next letter to the INTELLIGENCER. I have since concluded to delay my opinion until I am better prepared to express one. There are visitors to that building ungallant enough to say it is mostly a dry goods bazaar. There are others unkind enough to call it a gladiatorium of the lady managers, because the din of their wrangles occasionally breaks through the key holes of the council chamber therein contained and falls harshly upon the ears of the visiting public. It is said that scenes have occurred there that would have sufficed the face of the venerable Gladstone almost as much as those that occurred the other night in the house of commons. The presiding genius of this council chamber is Mrs. Bertha Palmer, wife of the well known publican who owns and runs the Palmer house at the corner of State and Monroe streets, a native of Louisville, Ky., somewhat gifted as an executive woman and also the handsomest matron in Chicago. But for her magnetic qualities as a woman, a parliamentarian and as a society leader it is a matter of doubt if even the "cohesive power of public plunder" in the shape of 80 per day and mileage, would have held the discordant element in that multitudinous board of her in subjection. At the very outset of the organization the combative Phoebe Cousins, of St. Louis, had to be fired out of the secretaryship because it became a choice between her ambition and the more congenial generalship of Mrs. Palmer. The French savoir faire in the make up of the latter, backed by her husband's wealth, proved too much for Phoebe and she was successfully squelched. I saw the famous St. Louisian the other day over at the headquarters of the rival masculine organization that holds its session on the third floor of pavilion A, administration building. Her name is not so Huguenotish as that of Mrs. Palmer's original, but her appearance is quite as much so, and I opine that when they collided it must have been a sort of Gallic affair. I was over there at pavilion A to attend a session of that rival organization which goes by the name of the National Commission, consisting, like the woman's board, of two members from each state and territory, all under pay at six dollars per session pretty much all the time. You remember that in the early part of the French revolution of 1789 France was run by a convention that became known as "the convention on permanence." So with this fair and the two boards referred to—the male and female wings of the government—they constitute a "convention on permanence." That is, theoretically they do. For purposes of per diem and traveling expenses they are the "convention of government" a la France, but the real government here, as there, is lodged in a junta. Those, Jefferson said "the world is governed too much," but he had no reference of course to the World's Fair. The members of the "convention on permanence" with a steady eye on the government appropriation that is not yet exhausted, regard the fair as in constant need of the laying on of hands of the whole congregation and have no notion of allowing the elders of Israel composing the junta to deprive them of the stipend provided by congress. So they are here in debating society assembled and will be here as long as their vouchers are honored at Washington. We had many politicians who for long after the surrender of Lee at Appomattox did not know that the war was over. The convention on permanence here still likewise believes the fair to be in an inchoate state and in need of the talents of the entire orchestra and chorus.

Looking on at the session of the pavilion A branch of the convention on permanence on the occasion referred to, I thought me of those "tuffy for revenue only" badges that the INTELLIGENCER one printed and the boys were in the campaign of '80. If you have any of them left please send a lot to Barney Galligan, keeper of the votes of the pavilion A branch of the "convention on permanence," with a request to pin them gently on the lapels of the multitudinous membership, so that they may thus let their light shine for all there is in their superlunary existence.

A PETRIFIED CANOE

And Remains of a Human Being Found by Workmen Near Conneville.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., August 6.—In digging a well here yesterday the employees of the Columbia Brick Company found a petrified canoe and the remains of a human being. Portions of the body were also petrified. The canoe was found twenty feet below the surface and the remains were lying in the bottom of it.

Geologists say this valley at one time was covered by a lake and that the action of the water gradually wore a sufficient outlet to drain it. The remains will be sent to the World's Fair.

Crusade Against Lynchings.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., August 4.—A meeting of colored citizens was held in the African M. E. church, on Wylie avenue, to-night, at which resolutions were adopted protesting against the recent lynchings in the south and appealing to the governors of South Carolina and Tennessee to prosecute the perpetrators. A fund was also started to defray the expenses of sending a committee of colored citizens to South Carolina for the purpose of invoking the aid of the law against the leaders in the lynchings of last Saturday. Addresses were made by Joseph W. Henderson, of Providence, R. I., Rev. Mr. Asbury, pastor of the Wylie avenue church, J. M. Foster and others.

A Physician's Advice.

To those who travel, or those who remain at home during the summer, "never be without a stimulant." Its timely use saves the system from many a shock, and as a preventative of disease pure whiskey has always been recommended. Max Klein, of Allegheny, is a reliable dealer, who only keeps the purest liquors in stock. His Silver Age, at $1.50; Duquesne, at $1.25, and Bear Creek, at $1.00 per full quart each, cannot be equaled. Send for catalogue and price list (mailed free) to Max Klein, 82 Federal street, Allegheny, Pa.

Good Advice.

In August, 1892, J. W. Vannoy, of this place, had a severe attack of flux. A physician was called who treated him for four or five days, but as he continued to grow worse the family decided to have the aid of another doctor in the case, and sent to Ravenswood for a prominent physician of that town. Before he arrived, however, I had some conversation with the physician in attendance, and said to him: "I believe Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy worthy of a trial." He readily consented and I gave him a bottle. One dose of that remedy gave relief. When the doctor from Ravenswood arrived his advice was, "Keep quiet and continue using Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." Which we did and in two days was cured. O. B. Howes, Druggist, Sandyville, W. Va.

A journal in Missouri complaining that two burglars attempted to rob a house in its town "regardless of the Sabbath."

La Grippe.

During the prevalence of the Grippe the past seasons it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troublesome after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting rapid cures not only in cases of La Grippe, but in all diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs, and has cured cases of Asthma and Hay Fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free trial bottles at Logan Drug Co's Drug Store.

The Trouble Over.

A prominent man in town exclaimed the other day: "My wife has been wearing out her life from the effects of dyspepsia, liver complaint and indigestion. Her case baffled the skill of our best physicians. After using three packages of Bacon's Colery cure, she is almost entirely well." Keep your blood in a healthy condition by the use of this great vegetable compound. Call on Logan Drug Co., sole agent, and get a trial package free. Large size 50c.

Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and this leg is sound and well. FINANCE AND TRADE.

The Features of the Money and Stock Markets.

New York, August 5.—Money on call nominally 3 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 8 1/2 per cent. Sterling exchange 47 3/4 @ 48. Sales 121,700 shares. Silver certificates were neglected.

The stock market opened weak. The room traders figured that the Walker failure ought to have adverse influence. Consequently they hesitated away at prices and succeeded in forcing sugar down 2 1/2, Lake shore 1 1/2, Chicago 1 1/2, Louisville & Nashville 1 1/2, and the general list from 1 to 1 1/2 per cent. London, however, bought moderately, and when the traders found that hammering tactics failed to bring out long stock in important amounts they made strenuous efforts to cover, and many of them turned out to the bull side. Prices bounded up 1/2 to 3/4 per cent. sugar leading. The bank statement checked the upward movement and prices receded 1/2 to 3/4 per cent. the latter in American sugar, but at the close the whole list was firm again.

Bonds were very irregular; sales $322,000. Government and state bonds dull.

Breakfasts and Provisions.

Chicago, August 5.—It was as quiet as a Sunday school on change to-day. What advanced a cent yesterday the New York bank statement caused some little reaction, the market selling off early to the inside figures, but there was not much wheat for sale. The exports of wheat and flour to Europe were about 1,200,000 bushels larger than the preceding week and 1,500,000 bushels larger than the corresponding week a year ago.

Corn trade light.

Provisions weak and lower.

Wheat nominal.
